

Acceptance criteria of user story/feature 1:

Scenario: Admin Login

Give: The admin navigates to the login page.

When: The admin provides the required details (e.g. email, password).

And: The admin clicks on the login button.

Then: If the provided credentials are correct, the admin should successfully login.

Scenario: The admin creates the user.

Given: The admin is logged in.

When: The admin navigates to the "create user" section.

And: The admin provides the required details (e.g. name, email, phone, NID etc)

And: The admin select the role which one he wants to create (e.g. agent, customer)

And: The admin clicks on the submit button.

Then: A new customer account should be created.

Acceptance criteria of user story/feature 2:

Scenario: System user login.

Given: The system user navigates to the login page.

When: The system user provides the required details (e.g. email, password)

And: The system user clicks on the login button.

Then: If the provided credentials are correct, the system user should successfully login.

Scenario: Deposit money to the users (e.g. agent, customer).

Given: The system user is logged in.

When: The system user navigates to the "Deposit " section.

And: The system user provide the required details (e.g. acc number, amount)

And: The system user clicks on the submit button.

Then: A pop up confirmation message should be displayed.

And: After clicking the"yes", deposit " button the users should see a successful message.

Acceptance criteria of user story/feature 3:

Scenario : Agent login.

Given : The agent navigates the login page.

When: The agent provides the required details (e.g. email, Password)

And: The agent clicks on the login button.

Then: If the provided credentials are correct, the agent should successfully login.

Scenario : Deposit to the customer.

Given: The agent is logged in.

When: The agent navigates to the "Deposit" section.

And: The agent provides the required details (e.g. acc number, amount)

Then: A pop up confirmation message should be displayed.

And: After clicking the "yes, deposit " button a successful message should be displayed.

And: The agent should get 2.5% Commission, see his current balance and transaction id.

Acceptance criteria of user story/feature 4:

Scenario: Customer login.

Given: The Customer navigates to the login page.

When: The customer provides required details (e.g. email , password)

And : The customer clicks on the login button.

Then: If the provided credential are valid the customer should successful login

Scenario: Customer sends money to another customer.

Given: The customer is logged in.

When: The customer navigates to the "send money" section.

And: The customer provides required field details (e.g. account, amount).

And: The customer clicks on the send button.

Then: The confirmation pop up message should be displayed.

And: The customer clicks on "Yes, Send" button

And: A successful pop up message should be displayed.

And: For each transaction 5tk should be deducted from the customer account.

When: The customer navigates to the statement section.

Then: The customer should see his statement details and customer balance.

Acceptance criteria of user story/feature 5:

Scenario: Agent/Customer payment to merchant.

Given: Agent/customer is logged in.

When: The agent/customer navigates to the "payment" section.

And: The agent/customer provides required field details (e.g. merchant number, amount).

And: The agent/customer clicks on the payment button.

Then: A pop up confirmation message should be displayed.

When: The agent/customer clicks on the "Yes, Payment" button.

Then: A successful message should be displayed.

And: 5th service fee should be deducted from the agent?customer balance.

